Here at Te Motu we like to take the time to explain the story behind our wines.
Please let us know if you are on a time limit.

1/ Dunleavy - 'The Shed' Rosé 2020 - $35.00

Charming and elegantly fragrant on the nose showing apricot, raspberry, crunchy apple and subtle spice notes. The palate delivers bright fruit flavours together with fine texture and zesty acidity, finishing long and delightfully dry. At its best: now to 2023.

4.5 stars – Michael Cooper

2/ Dunleavy - 'The Strip' Cabernet/Merlot 2017 - $45.00

A medium ruby red colour with a brilliant elegance leads to a pronounced nose of ripe black currant and black cherry accompanied by subtle oak toast and soft raspberry chocolate. The palate bursts with juicy blackberry, raspberry and black Doris plum, all held together with a textural tannin structure and fresh balanced acidity. The mouthfeel is generous, fruit forward and vibrant with a lingering fruit length that entices you to the next sip.

90 points – Bob Campbell MW

3/ Te Motu 'Kokoro' 2017 - $95.00

Bright Ruby red with aromas of fresh raspberry, red cherry, and rose petal intermingled with subtle vanilla and clove. Medium in body with lively acidity and fine-grained tannin. Fresh red plum bursting on the palate with cherry, toasty oak and hints of white pepper. Tight, elegant, and beautifully balanced, the Kokoro has good cellaring potential.

93 Points Bob Campbell MW

4/ Te Motu 2016 - $140.00

“Gorgeously savoury and complex, the wine shows dried cherry, bay leaf, cedar and leather notes on the nose. The palate offers elegant mouthfeel and roundness combined with spicy nuances, finishing delicately dry and structured. A blend of Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot & Cabernet Franc. At its best: now to 2030.”
